

50

Activities to Do at Home

Have a car wash. Put on bathing suits, then supply your kid with soapy water and towels. Make playdough. No matter the age, playing with dough is fun! Teach your kids how to cook. Make a family cookbook. Play card games, such as Uno or Go Fish. Get a giant puzzle and work on it as a family. Pull out the board games. Camp in the yard. Bust out the LEGOs and build a boat, your dream home, or a space ship. Set up a fun path of dominoes. Read books together. Make a vision board. Set up a treasure hunt in the yard. Get tidy! Organize toys, sort clothes, and rearrange cupboards. Teach your kids how to prepare their own lunch. Make an obstacle course and time them. Rearrange their bedroom with them. Arrange Facetime play dates with their friends. Have a movie marathon. Pop popcorn and get cozy. Bake. Make cookies, rice crispy treats, or brownies. Throw a football in the yard. Organize books by color. Play dress up. Make a runway and put on a fashion show. Take the dog for a walk, and try a different route than usual. Draw portraits of each other. Garden and get your hands in the dirt. Put on a play. Write a story, make costumes, and rehearse for showtime. Set up an indoor bowling alley. Make jewelry. Make a collage with old magazines. Blend up smoothies and make popsicles with the leftovers. Lie in the grass and admire the clouds. Run through the sprinklers. Pull out your karaoke machine and sing. Go on a backyard bug hunt. Make a DIY water slide. Build forts. Stay up late and stargaze. Race bikes, skateboards, and scooters. Make puppets and put on a show. Make a playlist and have a dance party. Shoot hoops. Enjoy a water balloon battle. Have a picnic in the yard. Play hair salon. Make fairy nests with materials found in the yard. Jump rope. Set up a recycling center in your home. Paint a bedroom. Call family members, such as grandparents. Make a list of all the things you're grateful for!